Investor Newsletter - June 2026

Welcome to the latest update from Ironwood Growth Fund IV. Several portfolio companies completed strategic acquisitions. Market conditions remained stable throughout the period. We remain focused on disciplined underwriting and long-term value creation. Detailed financial statements are available on the investor portal. Portfolio companies reported steady revenue growth compared to last year. We thank our limited partners for their continued support.